ORDER:

In the reference 2nd read above, the Member Secretary, A.P. State Legal Services Authority, Hyderabad has informed that the Legal Services Authorities Act provides for organizing Lok Adalats for speedy and amicable settlement of cases at pre-litigation stage and also in respect of pending litigation. The object of the said enactment and the scheme of Lok Adalat is to provide speedy and inexpensive justice and to settle the matters in harmonious atmosphere. Thus the Lok Adalats help the parties in amicable settlement of cases. In respect of matters where government is party, the settlement of cases through Lok Adalat will help to reduce burden on courts and also minimize the financial burden on the Govt., exchequer. The Hon'ble Presiding Judge and members have expressed that the bench is facing inconvenience for want of coordinator from the Finance Dept., as the pension matters mostly connected to the Finance Dept. The presence of the coordinator from Finance Dept., before the Lok Adalat Bench will help for amicable settlement of cases without loss of time. The Member Secretary has therefore requested to nominate a responsible officer not below the rank of Deputy Secretary from Finance Department to present before the Lok Adalat and to coordinate with the other Government agencies in respect of matters placed before the Lok Adalat.

2. Sri K. Venkateswara Rao, Deputy Secretary to Government, Finance Department is nominated to present before the Lok Adalat and to coordinate with the other Government agencies in respect of matters placed before the Lok Adalat.
